Press release

Bankhaus Lampe strengthens advisory services for medium-sized companies

Dusseldorf, 30 August 2013 - Lampe Corporate Finance GmbH, a subsidiary of Bankhaus Lampe based in Frankfurt/Main and Hamburg, is adjusting its range of activities as from 1 September 2013.

The Frankfurt branch of the subsidiary with core activities in M&A/ Corporate Finance will be integrated into the bank. In future, all the capital market services of Bankhaus Lampe group will be bundled in the Capital Markets & Advisory division, which is headed by Ute Gerbaulet. Norman R. Rafael will be in charge of the M&A team. At the same time, Mr Rafael will be responsible for customer services in the exchange-listed companies segment.

The Hamburg branch of the subsidiary will be renamed Lampe Equity Management GmbH. The new entity's services will continue to concentrate on asset-oriented investment concepts for institutional investors. Ole Klose, one of the bank's experienced investment managers, will join Detlef Schreiber on Lampe Equity Management GmbH's management team.

Dr Carsten Lehmann, who has been in charge of medium-sized corporate clients up until now, has been a member of Bankhaus Lampe KG's Executive Committee since October 2012. As part of the restructuring, Dr Lehmann is retiring from his position as Managing Director of Lampe Corporate Finance GmbH.

The restructuring is part of the expansion of the bank's capital markets business: The transaction business for capital market-oriented and exchange listed companies and the M&A advisory services for family businesses and their shareholders will now be offered from a single source.
