Press release

Bankhaus Lampe appoints Christian Ganssmüller head of Financial Institutions Coverage

Dusseldorf, 30 August 2013 - Bankhaus Lampe is strengthening its capital markets business by appointing Dr Christian Ganssmüller (57) head of Financial Institutions Coverage as from 1 September 2013. Mr Ganssmüller will be in charge of institutional customers across all asset classes. He will report to Dr Nicolas Blanchard, Member of the Executive Committee and responsible for the bank's capital markets business.

Christan Ganssmüller has been appointed as a General Manager. With many years of experience, he has acquired international expertise in the fields of fixed income, currencies, and cross-asset solutions. Most recently, Mr Ganssmüller held managing positions in various commercial banks, where he was responsible for the capital markets business with banks, insurance companies, asset managers and large corporate customers.

Bankhaus Lampe considerably expanded its capital markets business last year. Our capital markets experts consider themselves specialised partners and advisors for institutional customers wishing to invest in the German market. Our corporate customers also benefit from a portfolio of integrated solutions in all the stages of their development and across all assets and liabilities in their balance sheet.
