Press Release

Oliver Plaack appointed as a new Member of the Executive Committee of Bankhaus Lampe KG

- Dr Carsten Lehmann is leaving the Bank on 30 April 2016
- Fridolin Kopp will become the new head of the Stuttgart branch of Bankhaus Lampe on 1 April 2016

Dusseldorf, 31/03/2016 – Oliver Plaack (46) has been appointed as a new member of the executive committee of Bankhaus Lampe effective 1 April 2016. In this position, he will be responsible for the private client business of the branches and the private investors unit, i.e. advisory services for high-net worth clients and family offices. Oliver Plaack has previously worked in a management position at an international private bank and has extensive experience in private banking and wealth management. “Oliver Plaack is a valuable addition for Bankhaus Lampe. His expertise and experience will support the further development of our private client business”, said Professor Dr Stephan Schüller, Spokesman of the General Partners of Bankhaus Lampe KG.

Dr Carsten Lehmann (47) will leave Bankhaus Lampe effective 30 April 2016. He has worked at the Bank for 13 years, most recently as a member of the executive committee. Dr Carsten Lehmann is taking on a new professional challenge in the M&A sector. “We deeply regret Dr Lehmann’s decision and would like to thank him for his many years of good service. We wish him all the best and hope he continues to enjoy success in his future career”, added Professor Dr Stephan Schüller.

Fridolin Kopp (32) will become the new head of the Stuttgart branch of Bankhaus Lampe on 1 April 2016. He has been the head of the wealth management unit at one of the larger German commercial banks in Stuttgart for several years and has extensive experience in the banking business, including the corporate client business. “We are pleased to have recruited Fridolin Kopp, who will be a dynamic and dedicated head for our Stuttgart branch. This represents a step forward for this growing location”, announced Professor Dr Stephan Schüller.
