Bankhaus Lampe: Change in Management Board

Dusseldorf, 14 January 2013

Peter Ebertz (60), the General Partner of Bankhaus Lampe KG, will leave the bank on the 30th of April 2013. This move is taking place at his own request for personal reasons. Peter Ebertz has held this position since 2002 and been responsible for the branch business with high net worth private clients and corporates.

As part of this change, it is planned that Dr Nicolas Blanchard (44) over the course of the year will be appointed as a general partner alongside Prof. Dr Stephan Schüller and Ulrich Cosse. In this position, he will be responsible for the bank's entire Capital Markets business and its further expansion. Dr Nicolas Blanchard joined Bankhaus Lampe on the 1st of March 2012. He has worked for 17 years in the banking and capital markets business. He previously worked at a major European financial institution as a member of the management team for the Capital Markets business unit.

Since the 1st of January 2013, Ute Gerbaulet (44) has headed the Capital Markets & Advisory unit with the departments Equity & Debt Capital Markets, Advisory, Solutions und Principal Investments. Ute Gerbaulet has been appointed as a member of the Executive Committee in the bank's Board of Management. She has extensive experience in capital market transactions of every possible volume and previously headed the share issuance business at a major German bank.

The Executive Committee will then consist of Ute Gerbaulet and Leonhard Uphues, who will be responsible for the Capital Markets unit. Since the 1st of October 2012, Dr Carsten Lehmann, together with Michael

Bankhaus Lampe

Maletzky and Thomas Ricke, has been responsible for the Private and Corporate Clients business.

According to Prof. Dr Schüller:

"With Ms. Gerbaulet we have been able to get one of the highest profile capital markets experts on board. The new management team is a logical development for the expansion of our consultancy services for SMEs and institutional clients and an important signal on the market."

With a group business volume of EUR 3.3 billion, Bankhaus Lampe is one of the leading independent and owner-operated private banks in Germany with branch offices and subsidiaries in Berlin, Bielefeld, Bonn, Bremen, Dresden, Dusseldorf, Frankfurt/Main, Hamburg, Munich, Munster, Osnabruck, Stuttgart, London and Vienna. The limited partners' shares are completely owned by the Oetker family. This shareholder background guarantees independence and product neutrality as well as the solid and continuous growth of the bank.
