Press Release

Bankhaus Lampe: New Branch Manager in Bremen

Dusseldorf, 30 June 2015. Ines Golombek (46) has been appointed branch manager of the Bremen office with effect from 1 July 2015. She will be succeeding Oliver Janssen, who is leaving the bank on 30 June. Ms Golombek previously served as Head of Wealth Management at Bankhaus Neelmeyer and has more than 20 years of experience in the banking business.

At the Bremen branch office, wealthy private clients as well as corporate and institutional clients are served by three further employees aside from Ms Golombek. Bankhaus Lampe has had a presence in Bremen at Vinnen-Haus, Altenwall 21, since July 2009. This is the youngest of its 12 branch offices across Germany.

With a group business volume of € 3 billion, Bankhaus Lampe is one of the leading independent and private banks in Germany with branch offices and subsidiaries in Berlin, Bielefeld, Bonn, Bremen, Dresden, Dusseldorf, Frankfurt/Main, Hamburg, Munich, Münster, Osnabruck, Stuttgart, London and Vienna. The limited partners' shares are wholly owned by the Oetker family. This shareholder background guarantees independence and product neutrality as well as the solid and continuous growth of the bank.
