Press Release

Dr Jan Saat new head of ORG/IT division at Bankhaus Lampe KG

Dusseldorf, 2 March 2016. Bankhaus Lampe has appointed a new manager for its Organisation and IT (ORG/IT) division. Dr Jan Saat (34), who took office on 1 March 2016, succeeds Werner Schuster (62). Werner Schuster was appointed General Partner of Bankhaus Lampe KG last year. "Technical developments and innovations are driving internal and external processes. As a result, the position of ORG/IT Manager has become increasingly important in the last few years. Dr Jan Saat has exceptional expertise, and we are pleased that thanks to this we remain in a very good position in yet another challenging area," said Professor Dr Stephan Schüller, Spokesman of the General Partners of Bankhaus Lampe KG.

Dr Jan Saat previously served as Senior Manager at the consultancy firm zeb.rolfes.schierenbeck associates GmbH. He first studied business administration at Technische Universität Bergakademie Freiberg and then earned a doctorate in information management/business innovation from the University of St. Gallen's Institute of Information Management.

With a group business volume of € 3 billion, Bankhaus Lampe is one of the leading independent and private banks in Germany with branch offices and subsidiaries in Berlin, Bielefeld, Bonn, Bremen, Dresden, Dusseldorf, Frankfurt/Main, Hamburg, Munich, Münster, Osnabruck, Stuttgart, London and Vienna. The limited partners' shares are wholly owned by the Oetker family. This shareholder background guarantees independence and product neutrality as well as the solid and continuous growth of the bank.
