- Erwin Lochten appointed Managing Director of Lampe Asset Management, a subsidiary of Bankhaus Lampe, with effect from 1 December 2016

Dusseldorf, 01/12/2016 – Erwin Lochten (45) has been appointed Managing Director of Lampe Asset Management GmbH. He will assume responsibility for this wholly-owned subsidiary of Bankhaus Lampe KG, which focuses on institutional asset management, with effect from 1 December 2016. “We are pleased to have found a colleague with outstanding expertise to fill this position,” said Professor Dr Stephan Schüller, Spokesman of the General Partners of Bankhaus Lampe KG. “After many years of service with Bankhaus Lampe, Erwin Lochten has deep understanding of Lampe Asset Management.”

Erwin Lochten joined Lampe Asset Management in 2001. Since 2011, he has been in charge of the portfolio management team on the fixed-interest side. Prior to this position, he worked as a securities dealer for various employers, including Bankhaus Lampe. Ole Klose (50) will remain Managing Director of Lampe Asset Management alongside Erwin Lochten. Norbert Schulze-Bornefeld (50), the former Managing Director of Lampe Asset Management, is leaving the company with effect from 30 June 2017.

With a group business volume of € 2.8 billion and assets of more than € 19 billion under management, Bankhaus Lampe is one of the leading independent private banks in Germany with branch offices and subsidiaries in Berlin, Bielefeld, Bonn, Bremen, Dresden, Dusseldorf, Frankfurt/Main, Hamburg, Munich, Münster, Osnabruck, Stuttgart, London, New York and Vienna. The limited partners' shares are wholly owned by the Oetker family. This shareholder background guarantees independence and product neutrality as well as the solid and continuous growth of the bank.

Bankhaus Lampe

Lampe Asset Management was founded in 2001 as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bankhaus Lampe with a focus on institutional asset management. As an independent asset manager, Lampe Asset Management offers tailor-made investment solutions perfectly matched to its clients' needs. These mainly include insurers, pension funds, endowment funds, corporates, churches, industry associations and financial institutions. Together with co-operation partners, Lampe Asset Management offers these investors the full range of institutional asset management services, but itself focuses exclusively on the core service of asset management. Lampe Asset Management therefore maintains co-operation partnerships with all of the custodians and capital managers in this market. Aside from its headquarters in Dusseldorf, Lampe Asset Management also has a branch office in Frankfurt.
