Markus Bolder appointed General Partner of Bankhaus Lampe

Dusseldorf, 20 April 2017

- Advisory board appoints Markus Bolder as General Partner
- Markus Bolder will succeed Werner Schuster, who is retiring from his position as General Partner and leaving the bank at the end of the year
- The early changeover provides a solid foundation for the bank's future strategic development

The Advisory Board of Bankhaus Lampe KG has appointed Markus Bolder (53) as a General Partner of the bank. Mr Bolder will join Bankhaus Lampe on 1 July 2017 as the designated successor to Werner Schuster (63), who is retiring from his position as General Partner at the end of the year as scheduled. The appointment of Markus Bolder as General Partner is subject to the approval of the supervisory authorities.

Markus Bolder: Extensive back office experience

Markus Bolder has 25 years of experience in the banking sector. After completing a banking apprenticeship and business administration studies in Cologne, he held various back office management positions in cooperative financial services networks as well as private commercial banks and foreign banks. Prior to joining Bankhaus Lampe, Markus Bolder served as a member of the executive board of a public bad bank.
